

From This Day Forward Week 3

Have Fun

March 10, 2013

Talking through the message during the week helps you turn what God is saying to you into action steps. These talking points, questions and scriptures are designed to help you take the next step. During this series you will find questions geared to couples and also to singles.

Couples

Main Idea: Fun is not a luxury in marriage. If you don't make time for fun, you may not have a marriage.

- Do a reality check: How would you evaluate the level of fun in your marriage?

With your Bible or YouVersion read Ecclesiastes 9:9; Song of Solomon 4:1-3, 7:1-12

- What are some of the things you most enjoy doing together in your marriage? How have your interests changed throughout your marriage?
- If you are struggling to have fun in your marriage, what's keeping you from having fun? What steps do you need to take to remove these barriers?
- What are some of the things that first attracted you to your spouse and caused you to fall in love with them?
- Share one of the most fun experiences you've had as a couple. What impact did the experience have on your marriage?

Singles

Main Idea: Fun is not a luxury in marriage, therefore, make fun

a priority in all of your most important relationships.

- What relationship have you had the most fun in? What was it about the relationship and person that made it so fun? What were some of the things you did together that made it fun?

With your Bible or YouVersion read Ecclesiastes 9:9; Song of Solomon 4:1-3, 7:1-12

- What's your idea of the perfect date? How close have you come to having the perfect date?
- Why do you think it's important to God that we find joy in our lives and in our relationships with others.
- What fun traits are you looking for in a future spouse? In your friendships?
- What are some steps you can take today that will ensure that fun is a priority in your marriage/relationships in the future?
- Compile a list of fun and creative idea that you can do on a date or with friend. Pick out one to do over the next couple week.

All

- What is one thing you will do this week as a result of something you learned from this message?
