Four Things We Need to Teach The Next Generation About Money

1. God owns it _____

The earth is the LORD's, and everything in it. The world and all its people belong to him. Psalm 24:1 (NLT)

2. The Value of _____

Lazy people want much but get little, but those who work hard will prosper. Proverbs 13:4 (NLT)

3. The importance of a _____ plan

• _____ wisely

In the house of the wise are stores of choice food and oil, but a foolish man devours all he has. Proverbs 21:20 (NIV)

...stupid people spend their money as fast as they get it. Proverbs 21:20b (GNT)

• _____ diligently

• _____ with joyful generosity

⁶ Remember this: Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously. ⁷ Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.

2 Corinthians 9:6-7 (NIV2011)

4. _____ is the antidote

Now godliness with contentment is great gain.

1 Timothy 6:6 (NKJV)

“Today I have given you the choice between life and death, between blessings and curses. Now I call on heaven and earth to witness the choice you make. Oh, that you would choose life, so that you and your descendants might live!

Deuteronomy 30:19 (NLT)

My Next Step Today Is To...

- Memorize and or meditate on Psalm 24:1
- Evaluate what type of financial legacy I am leaving to the next generation, making changes where needed and strengthening the areas where I am on target.
- Commit to live a life so that it is evident to all whom I influence that God owns it all.
- Surrender my life to God today asking Him to be my Savior and become Lord of my life.
