World Missions

The Lord _____ missions.

<sup>18</sup> Then Jesus came to them and said, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. <sup>19</sup> Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, <sup>20</sup> and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.” Matthew 28:18-20 (NIV)

The human _____ necessitates missions.

<sup>23</sup> All have sinned and are not good enough to share God’s divine greatness. <sup>24</sup> They are made right with God by his grace. This is a free gift. They are made right with God by being made free from sin through Jesus Christ. Rom 3:23-24 (ERV)

FRANCE MISSION DISTRICT

The church in Cergy (just outside of Paris) is primarily composed of Haitian immigrants, many of whom were members of the Free Methodist Church in Haiti before coming to France. People of the church desire to find more ways to have an effective community witness and reach more Haitian and African immigrants in the area.

BELGIUM MISSION DISTRICT

“Help us start a Free Methodist Church!” was the plea that came from Filipino women who had recently moved to Oostende, Belgium. This request soon turned into the formal organization of the church in Oostende. At the same time, an immigrant group from Central Africa was organizing a church in Brussels. Up to their retirement, missionaries Lucien and Molly Behar worked with these churches.

The multi-ethnic Oostende group held their first morning worship service on March 24, 2002. Newly ordained elders Lawrence Abagnaba and Jackie Barbier lead ministries in West Flanders. The second group, Central Africans residing in the European Union capital of Brussels, held their first public worship service on October 27, 2002. This church is led by Rev. Siméon Rutazihana, an ordained elder from Rwanda.
